Subject: El Faro / Immersion Suit Test Results

Hello Tim,

We landed all 52 immersion suits for test and inspection and all were returned prior to sailing. Out of the 52 landed 5 were condemned. The Chief Mate is submitting a requisition for the Jumbo Immersion Suits as some of those were condemned. We currently have 47 good immersion suits onboard with paperwork.

If you are on the links hit them straight and have a good weekend. See you on Monday.

Best Regards,
Raymond T. Thompson III, Master.
